On Trip From East Republican Candidate To Speak In State—Local Leaders Ask For Talk In Maysville.

Senator Warren G. Harding will speak at Ashland, Ky., Wednesday, September 29, according to a dispatch from New York. The information was given out by Thomas W. Miller, head of the eastern division of the Speakers' Bureau of the Republican National Committee.

Republicans from all parts of the eastern section of the state are expected to attend the meeting. Mr. Harding will go to Ashland from Wheeling, W. Va., where he is to speak September 28. He is booked for Baltimore September 27.

Mr. Harding's visit to Kentucky will take place nine days after the Bluegrass Republicans make their pilgrimage to the Harding front porch in Marion, Ohio. The G. O. P. special will leave Louisville at 10:30 o'clock Sunday night, returning early Tuesday morning.

Preliminary to the address of the Senator will be the formal opening of the Republican campaign in the state tomorrow, Constitution Day.

Eight orators are booked. They are headed by R. P. Ernst, Covington, nominee for Senator, who is scheduled to deliver his keynote address in Danville at night.

Local Republicans upon learning today that Senator Harding speaks at Ashland en route from the East, immediately got in touch with the Speakers' Bureau requesting that if the candidate passed through Maysville on the C. & O. after his Ashland visit, that he be requested to make a short talk in Maysville from his coach platform. If this arrangement can be made, due announcement will immediately follow.

BOYS BAND MAKES A HIT DESPITE RAIN DOWNPOUR

Manager of Gibson House Very Kind To Members of Band Who Were Drenched in Down-Pour During Big Parade.

The Boys' Band is back from Cincinnati where on Wednesday they took part in the big Knights Templar parade which broke up in a down-pour of rain. They all report a splendid time although they were nearly drowned marching several blocks in the heavy down-pour before the parade was broken-up by orders of the Grand Marshal.

Upon arriving in Cincinnati Wednesday morning, the band members went to the Gibson House where they were welcomed by their old friend, Manager Hawk. At 11 o'clock they played a concert on the Mezzanine floor of the Gibson and at noon took dinner at this famous hostelry. At 12:30 they marched down Fourth street to the Grand Hotel where they met the members of Alliance, Salem and Warren Commanderies and they then took their position in the line of march at Lawrence street.

After the parade started the band marched through the down-pour until they reached 14th street and there disbanded and went to the College of Music for shelter. Manager Russell ordered automobiles and had the members returned to the Gibson hotel where Manager Hawk furnished them with rooms and after removing their soaked uniforms, they were put to bed while their underwear and uniforms were thoroughly dried. All of the boys were given shower baths and every precaution was taken to prevent them from contracting cold.

Manager Russell was assisted by Mr. Frank Hendrickson and wife, Mr. Joseph Capron, Dr. P. G. Snoot and wife, Mr. William Wood and Mr. Charles Triebel.

Mr. Robert Vicouti, a veteran band leader who has been teaching music for fifty years, was requested by Manager Hawk, of the Gibson, to hear our band and after hearing several numbers he complimented them very highly by saying that they were the best amateur band he had heard.

COAXED LITTLE GIRL INTO VACANT ROOM, IS CHARGE

"Kirk" Stickley's Remaining In Hiding Causes Friends To Fear There May Be Grounds For Charge.

The Augusta Chronicle tells the following story of the charge in that town against "Kirk" Stickley, Maysville man:

Lycurges J. Stickley aged about 55 years, is wanted by the Bracken county authorities upon a charge of having attempted to criminally assault a seven-year-old girl of Augusta. The alleged attack occurred on Wednesday last week.

Stickley, who is a painter and paper-hanger, had been at work in a house on Seminary avenue and coaxed the little girl into the vacant house, taking her to an upstairs room where the attempted assault was made. The man disarranged the clothing of the little girl, but before he could accomplish his purpose, was interrupted by an older sister of the child.

The mother of the little girl did not tell of the attempted assault until her husband returned home on No. 7 Saturday night, the husband having been away at work all week.

Stickley left here on No. 2 Saturday, going to Maysville, and the last seen of him at that place was at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, when he was on his way to the coal docks in East Maysville.

Chief of Police Orr, of Maysville, was notified and he made diligent search for Stickley, but was not able to locate him, although it was reported that he was in Carlisle Monday.

Stickley has been doing work in Augusta for more than one year, but it is a native of Maysville, where he has a brother. He is about 55 years old, about five feet five inches tall, with a heavy dark moustache.

It is said here that for some time Stickley has been taking small girls to the picture shows at night and being familiar with them in other ways.

The accused man is said to have been a Holiness preacher at one time.

The Chronicle refrains from mentioning the name of the little girl, but the parents are good people and would not make such a grave charge unless they were positive that they were right.

When the charge was first heard here hundreds of friends expressed confidence in him and belief in his innocence but his remaining in hiding instead of facing the charge is causing many to lose their faith and feel there must be some basis for the charge.

BOYS' BAND TO PLAY AT AMERICAN LEGION CARNIVAL

Our own Maysville Boys' Band will open the carnival on Monday night with a patriotic air and play popular airs throughout the night. The band will likewise play in the middle of the week, also on the closing night.

The general agent, Mr. Joseph M. Sheeran, of the Lorman-Robinson Shows, who has heard boys' bands, such as St. Peter's and the Glad College Band of Philadelphia, and other cities of the country, says that Maysville should feel highly honored with its band, as they really can and do play as good as any band he has ever heard in the bigger cities.

PURCHASER OF HORSE GETS HEAVY DAMAGES.

In the Mason Circuit Court yesterday in the case of Jefferson vs. Calvert Early, the jury found for the plaintiff awarding him damages in the sum of $225. Mr. Jefferson purchased a stallion from Mr. Early, which he charged afterwards proved to be wind-broken, although he was led to believe the animal was sound. The jury first returned a verdict that Mr. Jefferson return the horse to Mr. Early and Mr. Early return the purchase price but as this provision was not in the instructions the jury was required to make a new verdict which they did awarding Mr. Jefferson $225 damages.

POPULARITY CONTEST.

Who's going to be the lucky lady to capture the prizes of the American Legion's ladies popularity contest?

Maysville lassies are all asking themselves "Have I a chance to win?"

You have if you will try and put your shoulder to the wheel and put on steam and ask your friends to help and maybe by the next count you may be the one on top. Who knows?

JUDGE COCHRAN EXTENDS ARGUMENT IN COAL CASE

Further Argument In Case Seeking Injunction Against U. S. Attorney Slattery To Be Heard Saturday.

Federal Judge Cochran will hear further arguments in the case of the Marrowbone Coal Company, seeking an injunction against District Attorney Thomas D. Slattery and Assistant District Attorney Charles Fennell, to prevent them from further proceeding investigation of coal profiteering Saturday morning in Covington.

The company is seeking an interlocutory injunction against further inquiry by the government into alleged profiteering on the part of the operators until the validity of the Lever fuel and food act is passed upon by the United States Supreme Court.

Judge Cochran has postponed receiving the final report of the Special Federal Grand Jury from tomorrow until Saturday. Unless the court grants the injunction in the coal case, it is said, the grand jury will report indictments against about two hundred coal operators mainly from Eastern Kentucky.

GRAND JURY IS EXPECTED TO REPORT AT HARLAN TODAY

Band of 100 Men Search Mountains to-day for Pocketbook Carried By Miss Lura Parsons When Murdered.

Harlan, Ky., Sept. 15.—A report from the grand jury investigating the assault and murder of Miss Lura Parsons, Pine Mountain Settlement School teacher last Tuesday, is expected Thursday. The grand jury adjourned this afternoon until tomorrow when it sat for three days session during which it questioned Dr. H. C. Winnie, Frankfort veterinarian; negroes from the convict camp near Harlan, and teachers in the Settlement School where Miss Parsons was employed.

It is believed that the net of evidence is tightening about the negro convict camp and an indictment in the next few days is expected. Three men at the camp are kept under constant surveillance, but James Robinson, Fayette county negro who was driving the water wagon the day of the murder is suspected by many of the crime.

Judge H. L. Moore and James O'Connor, of Jenkins, are in Harlan to assist Dr. Winnie in proving his innocence. They came unsolicited by the doctor at the request of his friends in Jenkins, where he lived for several years.

Senator H. M. Brock will leave Thursday morning for Lexington with the bloodstained coat and shirt, and the club with which the teacher was killed, to have a chemical analysis made of the stains. The articles found near the scene of the murder have been kept in Harlan to be used as evidence before the grand jury.

A band of 100 men from all parts of the county will go tomorrow to the spot where the body was found to search for a pocketbook the teacher is known to have carried. The inside case which contained her money was found several days ago, empty, except for a parcel post receipt and it is believed the discovery of the pocketbook may lead to the culprit.

TOO MUCH GAS.

The following letter from the Kalamazoo Vegetable Parchment Company, Kalamazoo, Mich., has been received by customers and contains so much truth that it is herewith published. Our readers will profit by thinking about it.

All that we know about automobiles, is that they are a mixed blessing.

We know that they have come to stay; that they serve many useful purposes, that they are a mighty fine plaything for people who can afford them, but we also believe, as do you, that they are directly and indirectly responsible for very much of the present abnormality in the way of high prices in general and very much of present foolishness in particular.

When a car was not acting right, we have heard the driver say, "She has too much gas." Well, we don't know about that but we do know as do you that the world is suffering right now from TOO MUCH GAS.

We have been feeding ourselves on too many cream puffs and knuckles.

Too little work, too much play, too much jazz and not enough of the old-time steady marching music.

Will we swing back? We sure will, if you and every other level headed man will simply do your part.

You've just got to hold 'er, boy, you've got to hang on to your faith in God Almighty and your confidence in mankind and woman-kind in general.

Certain people, certain groups are right now running amuck.

Nature gave you a head to keep cool and a heart to keep warm.

In order to preserve the balance, in order to offset the wild thinking and the insane acts of the non-thinkers and the wrong thinkers, it is up to you to take a stand as one of the world's pinch hitters.

Nothing good can be gained by shaking the head and chanting that old, old refrain that the world is going to the bow-wows.

In the first place, it isn't true. The world has simply been using a wrong mixture, that's all. One of these days the law of reaction will take hold and then we will have a change for the better. In the meantime, Hold 'er boy, Hold 'er.

WORKINGS OF PROHIBITION WILL BE DISCUSSED

Conference of Prohibition Leaders To Be Held in Washington This Month To Discuss Experience.

The working of prohibition in the United States will be closely observed, and conclusions as to the practical success of the dry laws reached by delegates to the Fifteenth International Congress Against Alcoholism, Washington September 21 to 26, inclusive. Opportunities for observation as to the workings of prohibition will be had by different ones of the foreign delegates as a result of lecture and other tours which they will make in this country. In addition to information gained through personal observation and inquiry, the Congress itself will take on the character of an open forum in which there will be extensive discussions of the practical effects of the eighteenth amendment.

As Finland is the only nation other than the United States which is under prohibition law, the prohibition commissioner from that country, Dr. M. Helenius Seppala, will naturally attract much attention, especially as he is to make a report on "Prohibition in Finland." On the same day on which Dr. Seppala appears, Thursday, September 23, John F. Kramer, prohibition commissioner of the United States will discuss "Prohibition in the United States." It is expected that Mr. Kramer will go more fully into this subject of this occasion than at any other time since assuming office.

The countries other than the United States to Finland to be represented at the International Congress will be represented by specialists who will discuss alcohol from the standpoint of a disease breeder, particularly in some instances, as in the case of the representative from Italy, Dr. Endo Monti of Turin, many economic uses to which the wine grape may be put, will be reported upon. Dr. Monti being a chemist of international repute.

IN THE DAY'S NEWS.

Today is the fortieth birthday of Alfred Noyes, one of the most celebrated of the present-day English poets, and who is well known to Americans by reason of his long residence on this side of the Atlantic and his frequent appearances as a lecturer before American audiences. The poet was born in Staffordshire, England, and received his education at Exeter College, Oxford.

While still attending college he began contributing poems to some of the leading English periodicals. Since then numerous volumes of verse have come from his pen. In 1914 Mr. Noyes was elected a member of the Princeton faculty, under agreement to deliver lectures at the university each year on modern English letters. A year ago King George decorated him with the new "Order of the British Empire," for services in the cause of the allies.

Owe Their Health To

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—overshadowing indeed is the success of this great medicine. Compared with it, all other medicines for women's ills seem to be experiments. Why is it so successful? Simply because of its sterling worth. For over forty years it has had no equal. Women for two generations have depended upon it with confidence. Thousands of their letters are on our files, which prove these statements to be facts, not mere boasting.

Here Are Two Sample Letters:

Mother and Daughter Helped.
Fall River, Mass.—"I am glad to state that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did me much good when I was 35 years old. I was run down with female trouble and was not able to do anything, could not walk for a year and could not work. I had treatment from a physician but did not gain.

I read the papers and books about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. The first few bottles gave me relief and I kept on using it until I got better and was able to do my work. The Vegetable Compound also regulated my daughter when she was 15 years old. I can recommend Vegetable Compound as the best medicine I have ever used."—Mrs. W. YERGER, R. 3, Box 21, Middleburg, Pa.

Wise Is the Woman Who Insists Upon Having

Fall River, Mass.—"Three years ago I gave birth to a little girl and after she was born I did not pick up well. I doctor'd for two months and my condition remained the same. One day one of your little books was left at my door and my husband suggested that I try a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I started it immediately and I felt better and could eat better after the first bottle, and I continued taking it for some time. Last year I gave birth to a baby boy and had a much easier time as I took the Vegetable Compound for four months before baby came. On getting up I had no pains like I had before, and no dizziness, and in two weeks felt about as well as ever."—Mrs. THOMAS WILKINSON, 363 Columbia Street, Fall River, Mass.

The Fleming Gazette says:

Last Wednesday Deputy Sheriff Geo. Powell brought here and lodged in jail a man about 4 years of age, giving his name as Frank Powers and his home as Georgia. In the county court next day Powers confessed to petty larceny and was given thirty days in jail. He seems to be an itinerant marble cutter and he was charged with stealing a pair of trousers from the Garnett & Day marble shop at Nepton, where he had been permitted to sleep Tuesday night. He was arrested in Paris Wednesday and was found to be wearing the missing trousers.

Plenty of Heat and a Big Saving of Fuel

The WILLIAMSON PIPELESS FURNACE

has solved the heating question on the farm. It can be installed in old or new homes without tearing up the floors and walls for pipes and flues. It goes into the cellar but does not heat it—all the heat goes up through the register—there's no waste.

The Williamson Pipeless Furnace has proved wonderful in hundreds of farm homes. It is well-built and the strong Williamson guarantee goes with it. Come in and see one.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

The body of Charles Seyler, aged about 25, was found under an apple tree, near the home of his father, Gus Seyler, at Boude's Ferry, late Tuesday afternoon, death having resulted from a shotgun wound over the heart, self-inflicted. The last time Mr. Seyler saw his son alive was Monday afternoon, and when he did not return that night, supposed that he had gone to his brother's home at Higginport to spend the night. Young Seyler used a string in pulling the trigger of the shotgun. There is no known reason for the rash act. Young Seyler was well known on this side of the river.—Augusta Chronicle.
